Dear Parent/Carer

On Friday, 22 March, year 11 students will be having a year group photo taken. The photo will be available to purchase and will include the students' names underneath. This is a great keep-sake as they come toward the end of their time with us at Harris and move onto their next chapter.

Please ensure that your child attends school in full school uniform on the day.

To be included in the photo, we need the correct consent in place for your child. As your child is over the age of 13, they are of an age to give photo consent themselves, rather than us having to seek parental consent. Therefore, we are writing to advise that your child will be receiving a form, via their tutor, asking for their consent to be in the photo alongside their name.

If you have previously declined consent for your child to be photographed for safeguarding reasons, or have any other concerns regarding your child taking part in this group photograph, please let the Head of Year 11, Mr Bradley, know at david.bradley@harris.covmat.org

Yours faithfully

C Bult
