Dear Parents/Carers,

We would like to share with you the extra-curricular performing arts opportunities available at Harris Church of England Academy. These sessions will provide an opportunity for students to explore and develop their creative talents through music, drama and dance.

Performing arts activities offer a range of benefits. They help boost students' confidence, creativity, and communication skills as well as fostering teamwork, promoting well-being and, most importantly, having fun.

At the bottom of this letter is the timetable of activities. All sessions are free and open to all students. Please note that, although there is no charge for the LAMDA sessions, an exam entry fee will be payable (for students who receive pupil premium, the school will cover this cost). Further details about the LAMDA exam are available in a separate letter: please request one from Miss Clegg or Miss Crowson.

There is no need to enrol in advance: students should just come to the clubs they wish to attend. However, commitment and very regular attendance will be expected at the after school activities as we will be preparing for performances.

In addition to these free activities, we also offer instrumental lessons in piano, electronic keyboard, drums, guitar, flute and clarinet. If you would like to find out more, please contact Mrs. Brennan for details.
