

Chantelle Burns - Bio

Childhood and Education

I was born in January 1974 in Coventry, UK, one of 3 sisters. I lived all my childhood here and went to a local girls school. I was always a tomboy and enjoyed all things mechanical. A teacher encouraged me to apply to Rolls Royce for work experience what I was 14, I knew then that I wanted to be an Engineer.

Career Highlights

I have been very lucky, with a varied career with Rolls-Royce/Siemens to travel to many place in the world including China, America, Canada, Singapore and Europe. Most recently I completed a 3 year delegation in Barcelona, Spain
I have had the pleasure to work with some amazing people that have inspired, encouraged and supported me through my career – many will remain life long friends

Career History

I started my career 34 years ago, August 1990 as an Engineering Apprentice, I of only 2 girls in a year of 28 boys. I progressed through multiple roles working in the test facility, operations, supply chain, technical support, and projects.
Most recently I have been an LTP Project Manager for 5 years before progressing into my role today as LTP Entry into Services Manager.

Family Life

I am a mum to 2 boys, George 22 and Billy 16 Married to Liam who is a builder for 23 years.
I have a big family and love to spend time together making memories.

